

Qualified Mental Health Professional

Pathways Youth and Family Services, Mosaic Behavioral Health, is seeking a full-time QMHP to provide ongoing monitoring and behavioral health support services to children with emotional trauma as well as to serve their families. The QMHP will engage the children and family in weekly skills training and case management (routine and intensive) service and will use a strengths-based model to develop and build skills that will help the children and families function autonomously and successfully. The QMHP will work with the clinical team to develop a Service/Treatment Plan focused on the child and family's needs.

Mosaic Behavioral Health provides high-quality individual and family therapy, targeted rehabilitative services, and psychiatric care to children and families, in community settings and via telehealth. Mental and behavioral health is the largest unmet health need for children and teens in foster care.

Are you ready to join a team that's on a mission to change the lives of children and families? Want to be part of a movement that values compassion and empowerment?

Pathways Youth & Family Services is headquartered in Kerrville, TX with locations in Abilene, Dallas, Austin, San Antonio and Houston. Providing foster care and adoption services to over 10,000 children since 1992, Pathways' mission has become a reality. The organization has fulfilled its vision of thriving children, resilient families, and strong communities enduring for generations. True to its name, Pathways provides a path for youth and families to receive a comprehensive network of services through the following 4 vital programs: Foster Family Care, Adoption Services, Mosaic Behavioral Health and Residential Care.

What you will work on (essential duties not limited to the following):

- Enter demographic data, contacts made, and other required data for all newly assigned clients into the electronic record system in a timely manner.
- Facilitate the development of an individualized Service/Treatment Plan.
- Work with child, youth and family teams to develop a crisis plan to ensure the safety of the child, family, and community.
- Utilize approved skills curriculum with child, youth and family to help improve behavior.
- Coordinate and facilitate ongoing child, youth and family team meetings.
- Provide 18-25+ hours of billable services per week; the behavioral health professional should expect 25 to 35 clients on their caseload depending on number of referrals.
- Take initiative to request new client referrals as caseload numbers drop due to discharges and/or upcoming discharges.
- Meet face-to-face with clients in their home, school, office and community for the provision of all services.
- Initially assess and reassess (every 90 days or sooner if required for reassessment) the needs of the client by completing a CANS/ANSA Assessment.

- Meet with the client, family and all team members, and modify the Service/Treatment Plan to reflect the changes and/or progress made.
- Keep the family and team members informed on progress toward achieving Service/Treatment Plan goals.
- Motivate and support family involvement.
- Assist client and family in obtaining any financial assistance or services for which they may be eligible under federal, state, and local regulations.
- Maintain accurate and concise documentation of all services.
- Contact and collaborate with client, family, and community partners.
- Provide or secure support and crisis/emergency services for the child, youth and family by phone-contact or in-person.
- Maintain an empathic, yet professional, relationship with child, youth and family and strive to keep clients and families engaged in all services.

What you will bring along:

- Bachelor's Degree in human services or other related discipline.
- Two or more years' of prior experience working in the behavioral health field preferred.
- Ability to support the agency's culture, growth, and success through communication, accountability, and positivity.
- Ability to work efficiently and effectively both individually and as part of a team.
- Ability to work with children and families to deliver skills through approved curriculum.
- Ability to appropriately accept feedback through the supervision process thus displaying the willingness to learn, grow, and improve.
- Effective oral and written communication skills.
- Well-organized and adaptable.
- Ability and willingness to think "outside the box."
- Effective conflict resolution skills.
- Demonstrates good insight and judgment.
- Possesses an engaging and enthusiastic personality.
- Dedicated to the success of children and family teams.
- Skilled in speaking in front of groups.
- Competence with using Microsoft Word, Excel, the Internet, and other software applications.
- Expertise in oral/written communication.
